

- 1 research club
- 2 mixed up records - you can spend hours in here browsing their varied and ever changing selection of second hand vinyl, CDs, DVDs and books, no cash necessary - mixed up will exchange their stock for your old stuff!
- 3 offshore - just a minutes' walk from the uni campus, offshore's chilled atmosphere is the perfect place to relax with a coffee and some reasonable but budget-friendly food. Internet access is free provided you buy one drink an hour, so if you can manage that and want a change of scenery from the library, you can continue your work when you get there.
- 4 the halt/halt two - the halt bar is the perfect haunt for anyone who likes a pub that's a bit rough around the edges. decent priced drinks are always on offer, with regular opportunities to hear some good music, whether from the open mic nights (a good way to start a local fan base if you're an undiscovered talent), or from their once a month pre-club techno warm up.
- 5 the arlington - the arlington can be found just doors away from the halt bar and is a similar venue, although usually contains a slightly older crowd. a good place to watch the football.
- 6 chinaskis/black sparrow - a stylish bar complete with charming beer garden and balcony, chinaskis offers a classic food menu and good wine for people seeking a something a little more grown up than the usual student haunts. chinaskis serves the best steak pie in the city. black sparrow continues the bukowski references and ups the ante in the food department.
- 7 nice 'n' sleazy - sleazys has both a live music venue downstairs and an upstairs pub with arguably the best jukebox
- 8 the variety bar
- 9 cca - the centre for contemporary arts is a great place to engage with the Glasgow artistic community or simply soak up the creative environment over a coffee or cold beer.
- 10 the vic bar - the union for students of glasgow school of art regularly hosts electro, hip-hop, drum n bass, reggae and dubstep nights. subcity will be returning to the Art School for our hallowe'en party this year.
- 11 gift - the gift plays an important part in the cultural life of the city centre, showing a wide variety of international video and television productions in addition to arthouse, documentary, and mainstream films.
- 12 abc
- 13 where the monkey sleeps
- 14 king tuts wah wah hut

- 15 stereo - housed in a less well-known rennie mackintosh building and tucked away down a lane, stereo can be tricky to find for first timers. Serves vegan friendly food and puts on a variety of gigs and club nights
- 16 the cathouse - glasgow's well known rock, metal, punk, emo and hardcore venue.
- 17 sub club - voted 10th best club in the world by resident advisor and 14th best club in the world by DJ Mag, the sub club is known for putting big acts on in a small space with an incredible soundsystem. home to internationally reknowned nights subculture on saturdays and optimo on sundays.
- classic grand - the classic grand's interior pays tribute to its history as an art deco style soft porn cinema, and frequently hosts indie and pop bands on their way to making it big. a range of club nights playing a wide variety in music.
- macsorleys - macsorleys prides itself on being a classic no nonsense scottish boozier. affectionately known as the sub pub. it puts on a wide variety of live music acts, and is an ideal place to go before heading to a night at the sub club.
- 18 rubadub - rubadub specialises in underground electronic music and studio equipment, stocking lists of the best new releases as well as impressive back catalogs in everything electronic.
- 19 mr bens - A retro clothing bazaar selling the best of some of the most influential decades in fashion.
- 20 13th note cafe
- 21 the barrowlands - The Barrowlands has been voted the best music venue in the UK in a poll of British bands. It has staged some of the biggest acts to come to Glasgow
- 22 o2 academy
- 23 the unit - situated under a railway bridge, the unit will cater for all your afterparty needs.
- 24 the arches - the arches is one of europe's leading arts venues which does its bit to support and showcase new emerging talent alongside major artists
- 25 the soundhaus
- 26 gg brothers - the off licence with a cage, 'nuff said!
- 27 the ivy - well established bar hosting pre club djs weekly
- 28 the 78 - presents a diverse musical array and quality vegan grub nightly
- 29 uni cafe - the place to go to get a fry up on byres rd just a minutes' walk from campus, the kitschy fifties interior complete with old fashion sweet shop jars is the perfect surrounding for their modest and charming food selection.

- 30 oxfam music
- 31 basement bar

Subcity Alternative Tour of Glasgow

Subcity
radio

Subcity Radio's

Alternative Tour of Glasgow